Our Mission

To promote heritage in the local community through education, preservation and advocacy.

Our Programs

Examples abound:

Education: all-ages tours of our “Birthplace of Seattle” Log House Museum and public presentations such as the Riverside and Alki walking tours and the Richard Hugo tribute concert in White Center.

Preservation: collection and display of large and small artifacts, and the conduct and preservation of oral-history interviews.

Advocacy: continued attention to restoration of the Alki Homestead and Admiral Theater.

ms Veendam of Holland America Line

Support our mission today by purchasing a Golden Ticket for a cruise to New England/Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean or Alaska!

Purchase a Golden Ticket at today's Champagne Gala Brunch and you could win a seven-day cruise for two on the Holland America Line.

The cruises sail on various dates, and you will get your choice of destinations: New England/Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean or Alaska!

The cost per ticket is just $100. You can buy as many tickets as you like, but a maximum of only 100 tickets will be sold, first-come, first-served.

The winner will be selected today. For more details, look inside this program.

Our “Group Hug for the Homestead” on June 5, 2015, drew 1,000-plus students from Alki and Schmitz Park elementary schools, with scores of chaperones. Exactly 1,134 are pictured, including new Alki Homestead owner Dennis Schilling (on porch) flanked by Clay Eals, our executive director, King County Executive Dow Constantine, Seattle City Council member Tom Rasmussen, Alki Principal Shannon Stanton and Schmitz Park Assistant Principal Liora Minkin.

Welcome to the 2015 Champagne Gala Brunch!

Remember last spring’s exciting news that the Alki Homestead, purchased by Dennis Schilling, would be restored and reopened? And the giant gathering of students June 5 for a “Group Hug” in front of the 1904 log landmark? And the many scenes of Dennis and crew working hands-on to bring it back? This inspiring spirit brings us to the 2015 Champagne Gala Brunch.

As we celebrate the 31st anniversary of the Southwest Seattle Historical Society and the generosity that has allowed us to have such a deep impact on children and people of all ages, we are thrilled to have so many dear friends and generous supporters here today.

This, our biggest fundraiser of the year, helps us produce important programs and events for our community. On behalf of our organization and your friends and neighbors, thank you for supporting our mission to promote local heritage through education, preservation and advocacy.

Thank you!

3 A Day of Adventure on the 1913 schooner Adventuress – for Two

Have you ever sailed on a national historic landmark vessel? Here is your chance. You and a companion will enjoy a three-hour voyage over local waters aboard the Adventuress, a 102-year-old schooner. The Adventuress came to Seattle in 1952 by way of Maine and San Francisco. As the flagship of the nonprofit Sound Experience, it carries more than 3,500 passengers a year on educational sailing expeditions to protect Puget Sound. For your sailing day, you will receive an Adventuress baseball cap and a history booklet Adventuress: The Four Lives. Ahoy!

Searching for the world's finest seafood and ingredients is owner Duke Moscrip's passion.

Whether

traveling to Chesapeake Bay to visit clammers or brewing up his special blend of bourbon at Kentucky's world-famous Woodford Reserve, Duke is in search of natural foods that are chemical-free and sustainably sourced.

"Buying natural just makes sense," he says. "The result is that our guests get really incredible food."

From the heart of West Seattle ...

Fred Northup, Jr., who lives with his family near West Seattle's Lincoln Park, is one of the Pacific Northwest's busiest entertainers: as an auctioneer, host, emcee, actor, comedy improviser and musician.

◆ For 10 years, Fred appeared on stage as a company member of Seattle's famed TheatreSports comedy improv group.

◆ He travels the country auctioneering and emceeing and has entertained thousands at major events for Starbucks, Microsoft, Boeing, Amazon.com and Expedia and countless nonprofits, including the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center, the Museum of History & Industry and the Museum of Flight.

◆ On camera, Fred has hosted "Be the Next Microsoft Employee" and "The Xbox Accessories Show" and appeared on "The [206]." He played "Captain Fred McGilicutty," the hilarious national spokesperson for Copper Mountain Ski Resort.

◆ Off-camera, for four years he was morning sidekick for Andy Savage on 1077 The End. His voice livened the video games "Midtown Madness 3" and "Project Gotham Racing" and other radio and TV campaigns.

◆ For three years, he was the percussionist for the kids' band Caspar Babypants (headed by fellow West Seattleite Chris Ballew).

◆ Fred owns a video and event production company, Southdown Creative. He's also the co-inventor of RainGlobes, the globe that rains!

When not among the masses, Fred can be found in West Seattle entertaining his wife, Ashley, and their two young children. He is proud to serve as the Southwest Seattle Historical Society's auctioneer!

5 Your Own Piece of History – the 1904 Alki Homestead

How many thousand times have couples, families, work groups -- and YOU! -- celebrated special occasions inside this 1904 landmark? A fire damaged the building in 2009, and it sat closed for more than six years. Last spring, new owner Dennis Schilling began its restoration. It won't be long before we can again enjoy "A Bit of Old Seattle."

Celebrate this wonderful turn of events (and intensive behind-the-scenes work by the Southwest Seattle Historical Society) today by taking home a piece of the Homestead. There are two ways:

5A: Receive a handsome slice of a discarded log, with a plaque on a sturdy base, as displayed at your table today.

5B: For your lawn or garden, claim a three-foot-tall log segment, notched where it connected with another log, with a personalized plaque that includes your name.
